Your personal info & account (more info continued on back)

Once you are registered you can access your account <https://my.kindermusik.com/login>

Please make sure to keep personal info updated including names, birthdates, emails, phone/text numbers, address. This can be done by accessing your online account you can request & manage with paper if you prefer. All information given to KindermusikbySally and Kindermusik International is kept private and used for my studio & KindermusikInternational administration AND access to digital materials streaming. If you choose paper, the information will still be manually input into the online system unless you specifically request that it Not be in the online system. There are several levels of information sharing that can be arranged- contact me personally if you prefer paper or want to limit/block online access. See how to set up your access to account <https://www.discoverymeadowstudio.com/post/step-by-step-for-at-home-access>

Materials <https://www.discoverymeadowstudio.com/materials> (separate paper available)

An important part of Kindermusik is to use the process and incorporate it into daily life. Classes & events include ways to use Kindermusik AtHome. While register/enrolled Kindermusik families will have unlimited streaming access to all digital materials for the age/level through website and app. Access class/level by signing into your account. KindermusikbySally also includes at least one physical story book and one physical instrument -yours to keep- for each term (usually 4-month period). Athome activities sheets and crafts are available in class. More physical materials Are available (purchase or borrow). Physical activity books, physical story books, and a studio lending library for CD's and activity kits are available to all registered families - contact me personally if you prefer Not to use digital at all and wish all physical materials.

Health, Safety, more <https://www.discoverymeadowstudio.com/health-policies>

All physical activity includes risk. Inside spaces use baby proofing & padding. Outside space has fenced area available. Supervision as a community helps but be aware that different people have different risk evaluation. Come to class in comfortable clothes & prepared to be active, messy, shoes off (not mandatory but encouraged). Please leave food/drink/binkies/toys at home or in car (exceptions can be made for infants & children with a special need). We follow general school & public health guidance on illness. Very flexible with makeups! Studio is a no judgment zone- try to respect the boundaries of others and offer your experience instead of judgement. For safety, please record & keep updated attendance, names/nicknames, allergies, special needs, special situations and any other information that would help us. Include any mental, physical, social, or custodial needs/situations that may affect your studio experience. This can be done on your my.kindermusik.com account OR you can ask for a paper copy.

Picture Policy. Consent is Optional. Link on policies page or my.kindermusik

Many parents like to take pictures during activities. Keep others needs and boundaries in mind. If posting online do not show other children's faces (or other identifiers) unless you have cleared it with the parents. Teachers sometimes take pictures to use as teaching tools, in class for projects, post in the classroom (only with consent). If studio uses pictures for promotion, we will not use names unless you specifically consent for picture or testimonial. There are several different levels of consent on the registration form- see on-line account or contact us for separate paper form. Honesty is encouraged- say no if necessary- you and your child's safety and boundaries are important and respected by us and our community.
